Symposium

A symposium on the theme “40 years of entry into force of the Registration Convention: today’s practical issues”, will be held today, Monday 4 April 2016, in Board Room D, at 3 p.m.

The Symposium will be co-chaired by the Presidents of the International Institute of Space Law (IISL) and the European Center for Space Law (ECSL). Welcome remarks will be made by the Chair of the Subcommittee. Presentations will be made on the following subjects: “Legal and practical considerations of registering mega-constellations and space debris”; “Registration of hosted payloads, in-orbit transfer of ownership and the future of notification and pre-launch notifications”; “Registration of space objects with the Secretary-General: a retrospective”; “Launch providers — role and practice in registration”; “Registration and Space Situational Awareness”; and “Lessons from other regimes (telecommunications, aviation, maritime)”. Concluding remarks will be made by the Chair of the Legal Subcommittee and by the Co-Chairs of the Symposium.
