INTERSPUTNIK
International Organization of Space Communications

INTERSPUTNIK as a provider of advanced satellite telecommunications services
Modern satellite telecommunications services

- Digital TV
- Multimedia
- E-learning
- Telephony
- Internet
- HDTV
- Telemedicine
- Data transmission

© Intersputnik 2007
The Intersputnik International Organization of Space Communications was established under an intergovernmental agreement signed by nine countries on November 15, 1971.

Today, 25 states are Members of the Intersputnik Organization.
Internet for rural and remote areas
Frequency/orbital resource

- Europe
- Russian
- America
- Africa
- South-West Asia
- India
- South-East Asia
- Australia

Frequency coordination conditions being finalized

One or several networks successfully coordinated and pending notification

© Intersputnik 2007
Satellite projects

Procurement and deployment of a telecommunications satellite at 17E for African coverage.

Procurement and deployment of a telecommunication satellite at 75E for South and South-East Asia, CIS coverage.
Domestic satellite projects

Establishment of Ukraine’s domestic satellite telecommunications system at 3W.

Establishment of Azerbaijan’s domestic satellite telecommunications system at 27E.
Intersputnik Holding, Ltd.

- 100% subsidiary of the Intersputnik International Organization of Space Communications.
- International group of satellite telecommunications operators.
- Consisting of regional companies licensed to provide communications services in a given region.
- Offering full-scale services such as ground and space segments, communications channels, installation and maintenance of regional and international networks for government and private customers.
Intersputnik Holding, Ltd.: key projects

- ISATEL DVB-RCS Network (SPN: Russia-wide)
- Bosphorcom Turkey (SPN: Turkey, Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan)
- Central Bank of Armenia (BIP: Armenia)
- RTComm/RUSAL (SVC: Nigeria)
- Golden Telecom (SVC: Far East)
- Norilsk Telecom (SVC: Siberia)
International cooperation

- Status of a permanent observer at the UN Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space and UNESCO.
- Support of and participation in the UN Secretary General’s Global Compact initiative.
- Member of the ITU Radiocommunication Sector.
- Member of the Asia-Pacific Satellite Communications Council.

- Participation in non-governmental international organizations: Global VSAT Forum, International Institute of Space Law (IISL), International Astronautics Federation (IAF).
- Support of the International Telecommunications Satellite Organization’s (ITSO) project encouraging the establishment of a global broadband satellite infrastructure.
- Status of an observer at the Regional Commonwealth in the Field of Communications.
Contact information

INTERSPUTNIK
International Organization of Space Communications

Moscow headquarters:
2 Smolensky per., 1/4
Tel: + (7 495) 244 0333, 241 7277
Fax: + (7 495) 253 9906
E-mail: dir@intersputnik.com
www.intersputnik.com