

Promoting International Co-operation in the Age of Global Space Governance –
A study on on-orbit servicing operations

Dr. Nikita. Chiu
University of Cambridge
sze.chiu@graduateinstitute.ch

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE
Judge Business School

CENTRE FOR THE STUDY OF EXISTENTIAL RISK
UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

AI
Bio-risk
Geoengineering
Nuclear governance
Space Sustainability

Agenda 2030: People, Planet, Prosperity, Peace, Partnership

Space ?

Sustainability

Tragedy of the Commons (Hardin, 1968)

Governing the Commons (Ostrom, 1990)

Photo credit: Daniel Kalbermatter

Tracking

Guidelines

On-Orbit Servicing

Commercialization

- Potentials
- Challenges

Recommendations

Conceptualize Space as Global Commons

Debate and Discuss a Comprehensive Framework of Global Governance

Include Space in the discussions of the next Development Goals framework post-2030

Update Global Governance Mechanism to incorporate voices from non-State actor (inc. the private sector)

Engage the public through partnership with academia (beyond technical discipline)

Dr. Nikita Chiu
University of Cambridge
sze.chiu@graduateinstitute.ch