

10 June 2014

English only

Committee on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space
Fifty-seventh session
Vienna, 11-20 June 2014

Composition of the bureaux of the Committee and its subsidiary bodies for the period 2016-2017

Note by the Secretariat

Note verbale GRULAC-NIC-123.2014 received by the Secretariat on 5 June 2014 from the Permanent Mission of Nicaragua to the United Nations (Vienna) in its capacity as Chair of the Group of Latin American and Caribbean countries (GRULAC):

“ ... the Permanent Mission of Nicaragua is pleased to bring to the attention of the Secretariat of the COPUOS that the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States endorses the candidature of Mr. Hellmut Lagos Koller, Alternate Permanent Representative of Chile to the United Nations in Vienna, to hold office of the Presidency of the Legal Subcommittee for the period of 2016-2017.”

The curriculum vitae of Mr. Hellmut Lagos Koller is contained below.

CV Mr. Hellmut Lagos

Hellmut Lagos is a career diplomatic officer from Chile. He studied Journalism and holds a degree in Security and Defence at the National Academy for Political and Strategic Studies (ANEPE) at the Ministry of Defence of Chile.

He studied Diplomacy at the Diplomatic Academy of Chile and holds a Master's degree in International Law and International Relations of the Ortega y Gasset Institute, Madrid.

Mr. Lagos joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Chile in 1995 and has served as Protocol Officer (1997-1998), Third Secretary at the Embassy of Chile in Jamaica and Alternate Representative to the International Seabed Authority in Kingston (1999-2000), Consul in Rome and Alternate Representative to the International Organizations in Rome (2001-2004), Alternate Representative to the IAEA and other International Organizations in Vienna, including UNOOSA (2005-2008), Programme Director at the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) Secretariat in Singapore (2009-2010) and Deputy Head for International Security in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Santiago (2011-2013). He has been Sous-Sherpa of the Nuclear Security Summit process.

In 2012 he was appointed by the United Nations General Assembly in the United Nations Governmental Expert Group on Transparency and Confidence Building Measures in Outer Space Activities.

He has been delegate to a large number of international meetings and multilateral fora, including the United Nations First Committee, the IAEA Board of Governors, the Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty PrepCom, the International Conference on Cluster Munitions, the 2010 Review Conference PrepCom, the Oslo Conference on the Humanitarian Impact of the Use of Nuclear Weapons, among others.

Mr. Lagos is the head of delegation of Chile in the process of consultations of the International Code of Conduct for Space Activities. He is actively involved in academic activities, and is a regular participant in the Wilton Park Conferences in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Recently he has become a full member of the International Institute for Strategic Studies, London, United Kingdom.

He has participated in a wide range of discussions on international security, non-proliferation and disarmament. In 2013 he won the first prize in the essay contest of the Latin American Human Security Network on disarmament.

Mr. Lagos is currently Deputy Head of Mission at the Permanent Mission of Chile to the IAEA and other International Organizations in Vienna.